

LESSON XXXIXPŪBLIUS PŪBLIAE SAL.

A Vocabulary: prepositions This lesson introduces two new prepositions, both of which govern the accusative case. Remember that it is important to know whether a preposition's objects are ablative or accusative. It is also important to know how the few prepositions that govern both cases differ accordingly in translation. So, let's review.

Translate each phrase, in more than one way if asked.

- 1-2. ā deō (translate two ways) _____

- 3-4. ad magistrum (translate two ways) _____

5. cum poētis _____
6. cum beneficiō _____
- 7-8. de Vesuviō (translate two ways) _____

9. ē locō _____
- 10-11. in librō (translate two ways) _____

12. in templa _____
13. in Aegyptōs _____
14. inter viās _____
15. ob concordiam _____
16. per oppida _____
17. sine amīcīs _____
18. sub portam _____
19. sub undīs _____
20. trāns agrōs _____