

LESSON IV – Days with Books and Writers

Have you studied the perfect tenses? Let's practice those forms! Complete the following synopses.

Present	habitō	_____	_____
Imperfect	_____	vidēbās	_____
Future	_____	_____	aget
Perfect	habitāvī	_____	_____
Pluperfect	_____	vīderās	_____
Future Perfect	_____	_____	ēgerit

Present	afficimus	_____
Imperfect	_____	impediēbātis
Future	_____	_____
Perfect	affēcimus	_____
Pluperfect	_____	impedīverātis
Future Perfect	_____	_____

Notā Bene: Don't forget to review the perfect tenses of the linking verb. When you check the preceding work in class, be ready to give an oral synopsis of sum in the third person plural.

Now make the following verbs singular and translate those singular forms.

vocāverint	_____
auxistis	_____
crēverant	_____
interfēcimus	_____
pervēnerātis	_____

Let's review prepositions!

Give two different meanings for each of the following.

1. ā, ab _____
2. ad _____
3. dē _____
4. inter _____
5. sub _____

What case (accusative or ablative) is governed by each of the following?

6. per _____

7. prō _____

8. sine _____

9. super _____

10. trāns _____

Do you remember what the fascēs looked like? Translate the following five sentences about lictors, the men who carried the fascēs. Note the prepositional phrases.

1. Lictōrēs prīmō prae rēgibus fascēs portābant.

_____

2. Postea, lictōrēs ante cōsulēs et aliōs magistrātūs (dignitaries) haec signa imperī portābant.

_____

3. Sī lictor in Urbem veniēbat, secūrem (axe) ē fascibus removēbat.

_____

4. In Urbe duodecim lictōrēs cum quōque (each) cōsule prōcēdēbant.

_____

5. Apud populum Rōmānum lictōrēs fascēs dēmittēbant.

_____

